

Emotions

Sometimes we are happy, sad, excited or just tired.

Read the clues and find out how Anna, Tommy and Olivia are feeling today.
Cut out the pictures and glue them onto the table.

	Anna	Tommy	Olivia
How does he / she feel?
Why does he / she feel that way?
What does he / she do?

1. Tommy is feeling tired today.
2. The sad girl is searching for something.
3. One of the girls got a good mark in maths.
4. Olivia is not the happy child here. She has lost her bracelet.
5. One of the children has been learning all night long.
6. The happy girl calls and tells everyone what happened.

Who takes a nap? _____

 tired	 happy	 sad
A ++ good mark	 bracelet	 learn all night
 calls everyone	 takes a nap	 is searching for sth.

Emotions

There are many different feelings and everyone knows them. While someone is happy, the next one can be sad, another one can be bored and so on. The reasons why people have feelings are just as different as the actions they take when they feel that way.

If you want to find out more about the feelings of Anna and the others, start reading the clues and fill in the gaps.

	Anna	Tommy	Olivia	Jack
feeling	_____	_____	_____	_____
reason	_____	_____	_____	_____ action	_____	_____	_____	_____
weekday	_____	_____	_____	_____

1. Olivia is feeling sad.
2. The boy between the two girls has been learning all night.
3. On Wednesday one of the boys is excited.
4. The girl on the left got a good mark in mathematics.
5. One of the children lost a bracelet on Saturday.
6. Anna, Olivia and Jack are not tired.
7. On Monday there is a happy girl.
8. The excited child has to decorate the house.
9. One of the boys takes a nap.
10. The girl who is happy calls everyone to tell them what happened.
11. One of the children has to look for something.
12. Thursday is one of the four days.

Who is having a birthday party?