

A special festival

Task 1

A tour guide tells some tourists about a festival they are going to visit.

Read his report and underline all the “strange” words.

Then read these words backwards (= rückwärts) and write down the correct sentences in your exercise book.

Example: Have you ever heard fo “Eisteddfod”?

Have you ever heard of “Eisteddfod”?

Have you ever heard fo “Eisteddfod”? The Eisteddfod is a lanoitan festival in Wales. Once every year more than one hundred thousand elpoep come together to celebrate their passion (= Leidenschaft) for gniconad, poetry and music. The lavitsef is in the first week of August.

The Welsh love to sing. That’s why there are so ynam choirs in every little village, town or city. If you want to take part (= teilnehmen) in the Eisteddfod festival, you have to mrofrep in Welsh.

In the 12th yrutnec the Eisteddfod festival took place (= stattfinden) for the first time. There are many different festivals around the dlrow, but Eisteddfod was the first festival of cisum and poetry. Even the sloohcs in Wales have their own Eisteddfod festival every year.

Task 2  “Track 4”

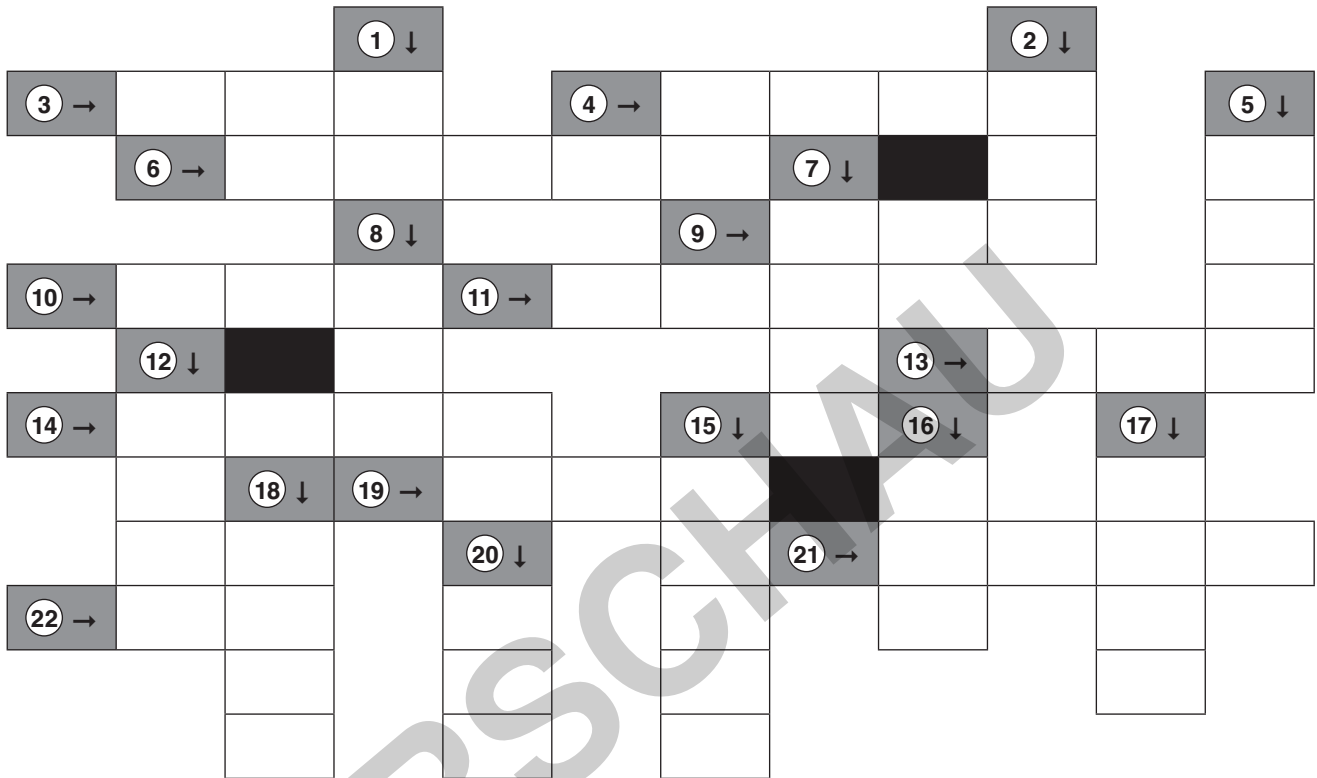

Listen to the tour guide and check your results.

Crossword: Basic words (1)

Task

Look at the sentences and fill in the crossword.

Across →

3. The ... is shining.
4. How are you? – I'm ..., thanks.
6. I'm ... I'm late.
9. It is very ... outside. It's 30 degrees.
10. We've met each other five hours ...
11. What is "sehen" in English?
13. What colour is blood?
14. What is "wann" in English?
19. Cross out boy in "cowboy".
21. The opposite of close is ...
22. We went ... the cinema.

Down ↓

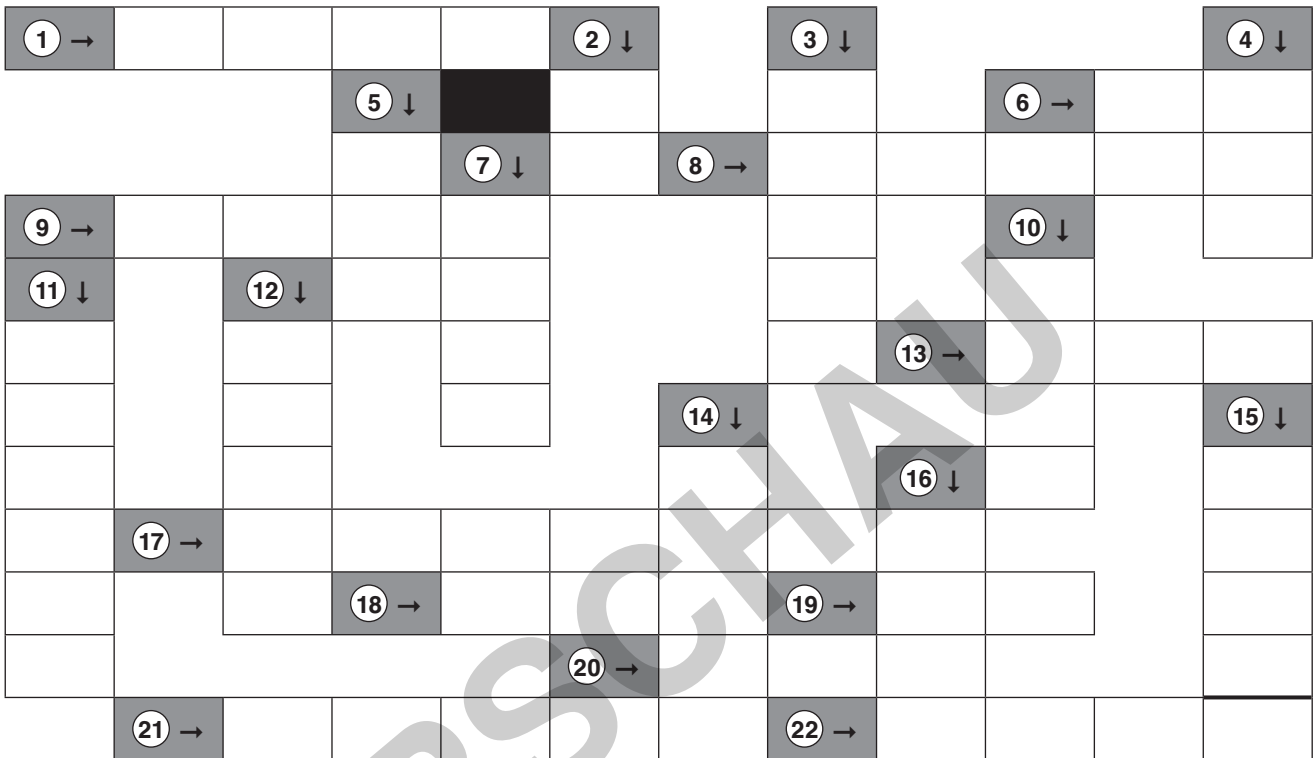

1. The opposite of yes is ...
2. I'm hungry. Is there anything to ...?
5. The music is really ...
7. What is "helfen" in English?
8. What is "eins" in English?
12. Don't go. Please ... for me.
15. ... wide web
16. The opposite of a girl is a ...
17. Very good; ... done.
18. The ... was locked.
20. The ... was ... It made me ...

Crossword: Basic words (2)

Task

Look at the sentences and fill in the crossword.

Across →

1. This book is Anne's, it is ...
6. The car is in front ... the house.
8. What is "Schüler" in English?
9. Have you ... "The Hobbit"?
13. O no! He has eaten ... the biscuits!
17. The opposite of "morning".
18. ... down on the chair, please.
19. Can you say it ... German?
20. Have you seen ... (Amy's) brother?
21. The sky is ...
22. I ... you, please marry me.

Down ↓

2. I met Jill ... hour ago.
3. The month after March.
4. A penguin can't ...
5. What is "Katze" in English?
7. It becomes ... at night.
10. You've five fingers on each ...
11. Brother and ...
12. The grass is ... and not red.
14. Would you like to come ... us?
15. Go ..., I don't like you.
16. A boy and a ...