

D. Sarrach: Differenzierte Lesespurgeschichten Englisch 5/6
© Auer Verlag

- 8 This is the trumpet club. A trumpet is a wind instrument, but Susan wanted to go to the flute booth.
- 9 At the baking booth Susan spots amazing cakes in all cO⁽⁵⁾lours with beautiful decorations. The smell of fresh cupcakes and biscuits gives her a warm feeling. This is the right hobby! Susan finds out that this club meets on Thursdays. Perfect! Susan is very happy and fills out a membership application. A girl tells her that she has to put it into the mailbox at the exit.
- 10 At the volleyball booth she meets Chris. Chris plays volleyball and tells her about the game. A volleyball team has six players. She also gets to know the girls team. The volleyball team has only eight members at the moment. Chris shows her how to set and dig. After only five attempts, Susan's hands are red and ache. Volleyball isn't the right sport for her. She wants to do something with a ball. What about tennis?

What other sports do you play with a racket? Circle them:

table tennis

boxing

squash

badminton

- 11 Cooking is another hobby you do in a kitchen, but Susan doesn't like it as much as baking. This is the wrong booth.
- 12 The tennis booth is crowded. Tennis seems to be very popular at her school. Susan waits ten minutes, but no one at the booth has time for her. She doesn't like to wait any L⁽⁶⁾onger. So she turns around and sees a hot dog stand. She needs a break and a hot dog!

Before you go on reading, draw a tennis ball next to the racket, please!

- 13 This is the bass guitar booth. Susan doesn't like the bass because it sounds better in a band. Bass guitars don't give you a melody to sing along to.
- 14 This is American football. Susan thinks it's too brutal. She doesn't want to get bruises!
- 15 At the hot dog stand Susan eats a hot dog with mustard and ketchup and drinks a coke. The hot dog is really delicious! While she's standing there eating, she thinks about her new "hobby-to-be". A bA⁽⁷⁾ll might not do it. Maybe she should try something with water? Let's see: Swimming maybe?
- 16 This is a toilet, but it's not next to the flute booth. That's not the one Susan uses.
- 17 This is water polo. Water polo reminds Susan of volleyball. This is not the right thing for her!

25 At the swimming club Susan meets Eric. He's in Susan's class and he's a member of the swim team. Eric tells Susan that you have to be a very good swimmer to win a competition. Susan has to laugh. She isn't a good swimmer at all... Her teacher once said she can run like a gazelle, but she swims like an E⁽¹³⁾lephant. Ha! The athletics team then!

My reading trail:

1, _____, _____, _____, _____, _____, _____, _____, _____, _____

Solutions:

Riddle to 5:

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13
---	---	---	---	---	---	---	---	---	----	----	----	----

Riddle to 10: You play _____, _____ and _____ with a racket.

Riddle to 21: Susan baked _____ cakes last year!