At the zoo

Kathy and Ben are at the zoo with their teacher Mr James and their class. All the kids love animals.

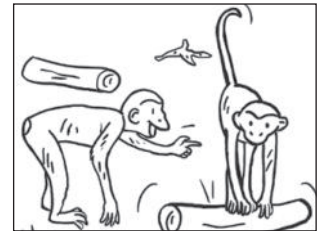

Start at number ①.

- ① Ben and Kathy are fascinated (sind fasziniert) by the elephants. Suddenly Kathy looks around and asks: "Hey, where is our class? We are alone!" Ben says: "Oh, no! Where are they? Let's look at the rhinos!"

- ② The flamingo lake is beautiful, but nobody is here. Go back.

- ③ The two monkeys have fun. Kathy has an idea and says: "Maybe our friends are hungry. Let's go to the the kiosk."

- ④ Right. The big rhino is grey and has got a big horn. Ben says: "They are fantastic. But Mr James and the class are not here." Kathy asks: "Maybe they are with the crocodiles?"

- ⑤ There is only one polar bear. He is white. Go back to ⑩.

- ⑥ It is feeding time (Fütterungszeit) for the seals. Many people are at the show. But their class is not here. Ben says: "Let's go to the parrots now."

- 8 The crocodiles are in the water.
Nobody else (niemand anderes) is here.
The friends go on to the tiger.

- 13 No, this hippo is big and grey, too. But it is not a rhino.
Go back to number 1.

- 14 One parrot speaks like Mr James.
The parrots says: "Hi kids!"
Kathy and Ben like the monkeys. They go to them.

- 15 No. These are penguins. Read number 6 again.
