

Sights in the USA

There is a lot to see and explore in the United States of America. These children spend their holidays in different states and visit the most famous sights. Read, fill in the table and find out:

Who visits the Mount Rushmore National Memorial? _____

name
month
state sight

- Sienna goes to the United States in April.
- Alexander is on the right and next to him is Logan.
- One child goes to New York in March.
- The child that visits the Walt Disney World Resort is between the one that visits the Grand Canyon and the one that visits the Golden Gate Bridge.
- The child that goes to California is between the one that goes to Nevada and the one that goes to Florida.
- Next to the child that visits the Golden Gate Bridge is a child that visits Las Vegas.
- Next to Alice is Finley.
- The child that goes to the United States in January is between the one that goes in February and the one that goes in May.
- The child that goes to South Dakota is between the one that goes to New York and the one that goes to Nevada.
- The child that goes to the United States in July is between the one that goes in April and the one that goes in February.
- One child visits the Grand Canyon in Arizona.
- The child that visits the Empire State Building is not next to the child that visits Las Vegas.
- Lola is between Logan and Alice.

US Presidents

There were 43 presidents of the United States so far. Barack Obama is the current president and really famous. But do you know anything of the other presidents? Read the sentences, fill in the table and find out:

Which president made cowboy films? It was _____ president

age
party
presidential period
special information

1. The president on the right is John F. Kennedy.
2. Next to the president who became 56 years old is a president who became 93 years old.
3. Between the republican president and the president who had no party is another republican who was president from 1861–1865.
4. The president who was shot in Dallas is not next to the president who abolished slavery.
5. The president who became 46 years old was a Democrat and was president from 1961–1963.
6. Between John F. Kennedy and Abraham Lincoln is Ronald Reagan.
7. Next to the first president of the United States is the president who abolished slavery.
8. The Republican who was president from 1981–1989 is next to the president whose period ended in 1963.
9. George Washington became 67 years old.
10. The first president of the United States reigned from 1789–1797.
11. Next to the president who became 67 years old is a president who became 56 years old.

US Presidents

There were 43 presidents of the United States so far. Barack Obama is the current president and really famous. But do you know anything of the other presidents? Read the sentences, fill in the table and find out:

Which president made cowboy films? It was _____

president
age
party
presidential period
special information

1. Franklin D. Roosevelt became 63 years old and was a Democrat.
2. Next to John F. Kennedy is Ronald Reagan.
3. The president on the right is John F. Kennedy.
4. The president who became 46 years old was a Democrat and was president from 1961–1963.
5. Next to the president who reigned till 1865 is a president who reigned from 1789–1797.
6. The president who was shot in Dallas is not next to the president who abolished slavery.
7. Between Ronald Reagan and George Washington is Abraham Lincoln.
8. The Republican president who became 56 years old is next to the one who became 67 years old.
9. Between the president who reigned until 1963 and the one who reigned from 1861-1965 is a president who reigned from 1981–1989.
10. Between the president with more than two presidential periods and the president who abolished slavery is the first president of the United States.
11. Next to the president who became 63 years old is a president who became 67 years old and belonged to no party.
12. The president who reigned from 1933–1945 was the only president with more than two periods.
13. The president who became 93 years old was a Republican and is next to the president who became 56 years old.