

A weekend trip (three friends)

Language tools

Friend 1 I'm so excited about our weekend trip! Camping is really cool. I have a great tent for all of us. We can make a camp fire at night. We can go swimming in a lake. We can see wild animals. I get sick in roller coasters. Youth hostels are boring. Theme parks are very expensive.
Friend 2 I am so happy to go on a trip with you! I know a really great youth hostel. It is very comfortable. At youth hostels you can meet people. I hate camping. It's uncomfortable. It's better when the weather is bad. You can eat whatever you want.
Friend 3 We will have a great time together! Theme parks are extremely cool. We could have lots of fun there. Ferris wheels are so exciting! We could eat hamburgers and pizzas. Swimming in a lake sounds good. Meeting other young people is cool too.

Vocabulary

to convince sb.	comfortable	trip	theme park
to decide	tent	hiking	Ferris wheel
exciting	lake	youth hostel	roller coaster

A weekend trip (three friends)

Role cards

Role card: friend 1

You meet with your friends to plan your trip for the weekend. You would like to go camping and hiking. There is a really nice little lake in the middle of a forest. It's not very far from your hometown and your parents could bring you there. But your friends have different ideas about the weekend trip. You try to convince them that your idea is the best.

Your notes: _____

Role card: friend 2

You meet with your friends to plan your trip for the weekend. You would like to go to a youth hostel. You went there last year with your parents and it was really great. They have nice, comfortable rooms and a good restaurant. Youth hostels are great because there are always lots of young people you can hang out with. You try to convince your friends that your idea is the best.

Your notes: _____

Role card: friend 3

You meet with your friends to plan your trip for the weekend. You would like to go to a theme park. You love roller coasters and Ferris wheels. There is a new theme park not too far away and they offer special prices next weekend. You try to convince your friends that your idea is the best.

Your notes: _____

