

1. Think fast.

Trage die Adverbien und die Adjektive in die passenden Lücken ein.

Example:

Lindsay is a quiet cat. She walks quietly when she looks for mice. (quietly – quiet)

- Lisa smiles _____ because it's a _____ day for her.
(beautifully – beautiful)
- Is this a _____ diamond? It looks _____ expensive. (really – real)
- You don't sing _____. The song is _____. (badly – bad)

2. What a horrible Monday!

Lies dir die Geschichte durch und überlege: Adjektiv oder Adverb?
Unterstreiche die richtige Form.

Last Monday, Charly had a badly / bad day. He got up late because his new alarm clock didn't work. That made him angry. On his way to school, the bus driver drove very slowly / slow. Charly asked him politely to drive fast. The bus driver couldn't hear Charly because he was listening to loudly / loud music.

Charly was late for school. He ran quickly into the classroom and said "Sorry!" to Mrs. Brown. Mrs. Brown smiled at him nicely / nice and asked him to sit down quietly / quiet. At break Charly wanted to eat his sandwich. He was really / real hungry. "Oh no!" he shouted angrily / angry. He forgot his yummy / yummily sandwich at home.

When Charly came home, he was tired. His mum asked him, "What's up, Charly? Why do you look so sadly / sad?" Charly didn't answer. He only wanted to eat something and go to bed.

3. It's your turn.

Schreibe mithilfe der Kästen zwei Sätze, in denen du Adverbien benutzt, und zwei Sätze, in denen du Adjektive benutzt. Schreibe in dein Heft.

Examples: I sang a funny song yesterday. My friend plays the trumpet badly.

We My hamster I My friend My teacher You	verbs smile drive run eat speak play sing open	adjectives sweet nice bad slow fast funny happy good	adverbs nicely sweetly slowly fast well badly
---	---	--	--

1. Think fast.

Fill in the correct word: adjective or adverb?

Example:

Lindsay is a quiet cat. She walks quietly when she looks for mice. (quiet)

- Lisa smiles _____ because it's a _____ day for her. (beautiful)
- Is this a _____ diamond? It looks _____ expensive. (real)
- You don't sing _____. The song is _____. (bad)
- Charlie finished the test _____ because he's a _____ thinker. (quick)

2. What a horrible Monday!

Read the text and decide: adjective or adverb? Underline the correct form.

Last Monday, Charly had a badly / bad day. He got up lately / late because his newly / new alarm clock didn't work. That made him angrily / angry. On his way to school, the bus driver drove very slowly / slow. Charly asked him politely / polite to drive fast. The bus driver couldn't hear Charly, because he was listening to loudly / loud music.

Charly was late for school. He ran quickly / quick into the classroom and said "Sorry!" to Mrs. Brown. Mrs. Brown smiled at him nicely / nice and asked him to sit down quietly / quiet. At break Charly wanted to eat his sandwich. He was really / real hungrily / hungry. "Oh no!" he shouted angrily / angry. He forgot his yummily / yummy sandwich at home.

When Charly came home, he was tiredly / tired. His mum asked him, "What's up, Charly? Why do you look so sadly / sad?" Charly didn't answer. He only wanted to eat something and go to bed. "Charly, you don't forget about the doctor's appointment, did you?" Michelle asked. "Oh no, I forgot! I don't want to go to this terribly / terrible doctor today," Charly said. "This day is an absolutely / absolute disaster."

3. It's your turn.

Write sentences: three sentences with adjectives and three sentences with adverbs. You can use the words from the boxes or others. Write into your exercise book.

Examples: I sang a funny song yesterday. My friend plays the trumpet badly.

We
My hamster
I
My friend
My teacher
You

verbs

smile	drive
run	eat
speak	play
sing	open

adjectives

sweet	nice
bad	slow
fast	funny
happy	good