

1. Lisa is more careful than Donald.

Vergleiche die Menschen, Tiere und Dinge miteinander.

Example: Lisa is more careful than Bill, but Michelle is the most careful.	a. Danielle is _____ Donald, but Lindsay is _____.
b. German is _____ maths, but English is _____.	c. Football is _____ ice-skating, but tennis is _____.

2. What's the best?

Kreise die richtige Form des Komparativs und des Superlativs ein.

Example: many: Charly tells more / much terrible jokes than Lisa. Bill tells the many / most terrible jokes in the family.

- good: Granny Grace is the most good / best chess player in town. She is worse / better than everybody else.
- bad: I think that Charly is worst / worse at drawing pictures than Lisa, but Donald is the worst / most. His pictures are awful!
- little: Lindsay is more little / less aggressive than Donald, but Danielle is the most / least aggressive. She can't even kill a fly.

3. What do you think?

Wie siehst du es? Vergleiche die Begriffe miteinander und fülle die Lücken.

Example: popular: clowns – movie stars – my maths teacher

I think that clowns are more popular than my maths teacher and that movie stars are the most popular.

- a. beautiful: flowers – high heels – sports cars

I think that _____ are _____ than _____ and that _____ are _____.

- b. important: music – money – love

I think that _____ is _____ than _____ and that _____ is _____.

- c. intelligent: a hamster – a cat – a koala bear

I think that _____ is _____ than _____ and that _____ is _____.

1. Lisa is more careful than Donald.

Compare the persons, animals and things in the pictures.

Example:  Lisa is more careful than Bill, but Michelle is the most careful.	a. Danielle _____          _____ Donald, but Lindsay _____          _____.	b. German _____          _____ maths, but English _____          _____.
c. Football _____          ice-skating, but tennis _____          _____.	d. A smartphone _____          a banana, but a sports car _____          _____.

2. What's the best?

Fill in the gaps with the comparative and the superlative forms.

Example: many: Charly tells more terrible jokes than Lisa. Bill tells the most terrible jokes in the family.

- good: Granny Grace is the _____ chess player in town. She is _____ than everybody else.
- bad: I think that Charly is _____ at drawing pictures than Lisa, but Donald is _____. His pictures are awful!
- little: Lindsay is _____ aggressive than Donald, but Danielle is the _____ aggressive. She can't even kill a fly.

3. What do you think?

Ask yourself what you think and write your results in your exercise book. Sometimes you need 'more' and 'most' and sometimes you need '-er' and '-est'.

Example: popular: clowns – movie stars – my maths teacher

I think that clowns are more popular than my maths teacher and that movie stars are the most popular.

- beautiful: flowers – high heels – sports cars
- important: music – money – love
- intelligent: a hamster – a cat – a koala bear
- exciting: an English test – a Halloween party – a school trip