Write their names into the right minibook: Sir Winston Churchill, Isambard Kingdom Brunel, Diana – Princess of Wales, Charles Darwin, William Shakespeare, Sir Isaac Newton, Queen Elizabeth I, John Lennon, Horatio Nelson, Oliver Cromwell.

Find photos of these famous Britons on the Internet and stick them into your minibook.

Impulskarte 1: Where on earth?

Faltvorlage 1: Pop-Up

How good at geography are you?

Look at the different countries in your minibook. Fill in the names of these countries (1–5).

You can use the Internet or your atlas.

Impulskarte 4: British money

Faltvorlage 4: Diagonales Leporello

What is the British currency? Can you pay in euros in Great Britain? Look at the different objects in your minibook. How much are they? In the back side write the answers in full sentences.

Example: The book is six pounds thirty.

Remember: pounds = £, pence = p, GBP = Great Britain Pound

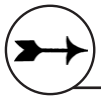

Impulskarte 2: Popular British food

Faltvorlage 2: Recherchefächer

Find three different typically British main courses, desserts and drinks. Write them onto your lists.

You can draw pictures or stick in pictures as well.

You can use the Internet or a British cookbook.

Impulskarte 11: British sports

Faltvorlage 11: Faltkreis

Which sports do the British like to do? For most of them you need a ball.

Write some of these sports around the circle.

Into the circle, shortly write about one of these sports.

Example: We need a bat and a tennis ball to play tennis.

These words can help you: bat (= Tischtennisschläger), goal (= Tor), goalkeeper, pitch (= Feld), referee (= Schiedsrichter), whistle (= Pfeife), racket (= Badminton-/Tennisschläger), net.

Impulskarte 9: Weather idioms

Faltvorlage 9: Dreieckstasche mit Dreiecksklappen

There are a lot of English idioms about the weather.

Write the correct idioms on top of the triangles. The pictures will help you.

- It's a storm in a teacup.
- I'm feeling a bit under the weather.
- Every cloud has a silver lining.
- It's raining cats and dogs.

Inside the minibook you'll find the meanings of the idioms. Fill in the correct words: angry, bad, good, heavily, important, raining, sick, well.

Impulskarte 12: Christmas in Great Britain

Faltvorlage 12: Register mit sechs Seiten

Christmas in Great Britain the same as in Germany?

Write down all you know about Christmas in Great Britain. Answer the questions in your minibook.

You can use the Internet.

Impulskarte 10: The UK flags

Faltvorlage 10: Flaggen-Fächer

Did you know that there are different flags for the different countries of the United Kingdom?

Under each flag write the name of the country.

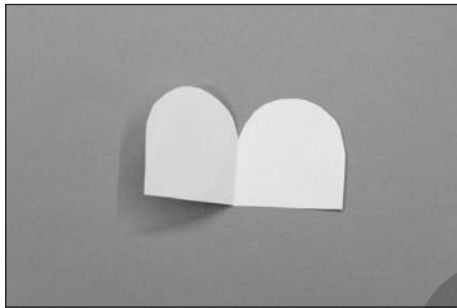

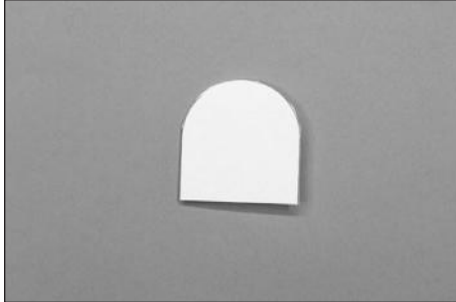

Colour the flags in the right colours.

At the back of each flag, write something about the flag or the country.

Example: There is a dragon on the Welsh flag.
