Liva is celebrating her 12th birthday. She has been waiting for it because she is having a party. She invited two friends to stay with her and sleep at her house.

First, they play volleyball in the garden. Then her mother has prepared something for them. She has hidden a golden ball somewhere in the garden for them to find. Maya finds the pretty 5 little ball. It was carefully hidden under some stones. Maya screams and cheers when she finds it. She is very happy! Then they have some ice cream, which tastes really good, and then they jump on the trampoline. After that they play badminton.

For dinner they have spaghetti.

Liva and her mother have prepared fresh water, cold ice cubes and different tasty juices. The 10 girls mix cocktails and they also make popcorn, some sweet and some salty. Then they get comfortable and sit together on the sofa, with lots of pillows and blankets around them. They turn on the projector and watch a film. It's about pirates who sail from island to island on their ship in search of a treasure. It's really good and a little bit scary, too.

When the film is over, they get comfortable on their mattresses and talk until late into the night.

15 Eventually, they all fall asleep.

It's autumn. The days are getting shorter and it's getting darker and colder outside. The children collect sticks. Together they pile them up. The wind blows leaves onto the grass. They gather them up and throw them on the pile of sticks. They put a few more tree branches on top so they won't be blown away later on.

- 5 Their little pile of sticks is located in a corner of their small garden between some old bushes.

Now they hope that over the winter hedgehogs will move in there. Maybe they will even have a few babies. That would be so great and they are very much looking forward to that!

- 10 Tim read somewhere that hedgehogs like to eat cat food. So they plan to put some out every day. They also want to put out a bowl filled with water next to it. They wonder if they will be successful ...

It's autumn. The days are getting shorter and it's getting darker and colder outside. Still, it is beautiful being outside. The children collect some sticks. Together they pile all of them up. The wind blows some leaves around which land on the grass. They gather them up as well and throw them on their pile of sticks. They find a few more tree branches nearby and put them on top so they won't be blown away later on. Great, they are finished! Their little pile of sticks is located in a quiet corner of their small garden between some old bushes.
Now they hope that over the winter one or two (or maybe even more) hedgehogs will move in there. Maybe they will even have a few babies. That would be so great and they are very much looking forward to that!

10 Tim, who reads a lot, read somewhere that hedgehogs like to eat cat food. They don't know why. To them it doesn't smell very good ... But they don't have to eat it.
