

1. Read the text carefully. Underline all nouns.
Connect the pictures in the order of the nouns in the text.

The house is dirty. Mum and dad are cleaning the house, because the grandparents will come to visit for a few days. They haven't seen each other in a long time.

Mum makes a long list of what everyone has to do. Sarah has to vacuum. She gets the vacuum cleaner from the basement and starts upstairs in her room. Then she vacuums the bathroom, and continues in the living room. In front of the sofa there are books and pillows that she has to put away. She's happy when she's finally done with everything.

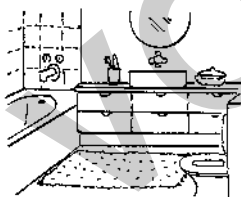

Tim has to clean the kitchen. He gets a rag and a bucket and cleans the oven. After that, he cleans the stove. He wipes the table and cleans the water tap. Finally, he is done with the kitchen.

Dad is clearing everything out of the garage so that the car can fit in there, and mum is cleaning the bathroom. She's cleaning the shower when the doorbell rings. The grandparents are here.

Now they can start with the barbecue.

2. Connect the pictures with the matching words.

stairs

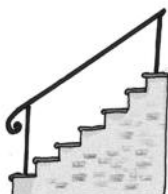

garden

bedroom

bathroom

basement

1. Read the text carefully. Underline all nouns.
Connect the pictures in the order of the nouns in the text.

The house is really dirty. Mum and dad are cleaning the house, because the grandparents will come to visit for a few days. They haven't seen each other in a long time, and they're very excited to see everyone again.

Mum makes a long list of what everyone has to do. Sarah has to vacuum. She gets the vacuum cleaner from downstairs. It is in the basement. Then she starts vacuuming upstairs in her room. She likes to vacuum because it's not that hard. Afterwards, she vacuums the bathroom, and continues in the living room. In front of the sofa there are books and pillows that she has to put away. She's happy when she's finally done with everything.

Tim also has to help. He has to clean the kitchen. He gets a rag and a bucket and starts by 5 cleaning the oven which is really dirty ... After that, he cleans the stove. He wipes the table and cleans the water tap, which luckily are both not at all dirty. Finally, he is done with the kitchen. While dad is clearing everything out of the garage so that the car can fit in there, mum is cleaning the bathroom. She's cleaning the shower when suddenly the doorbell rings. The grandparents are here. Now they can finally start with the barbecue.

10

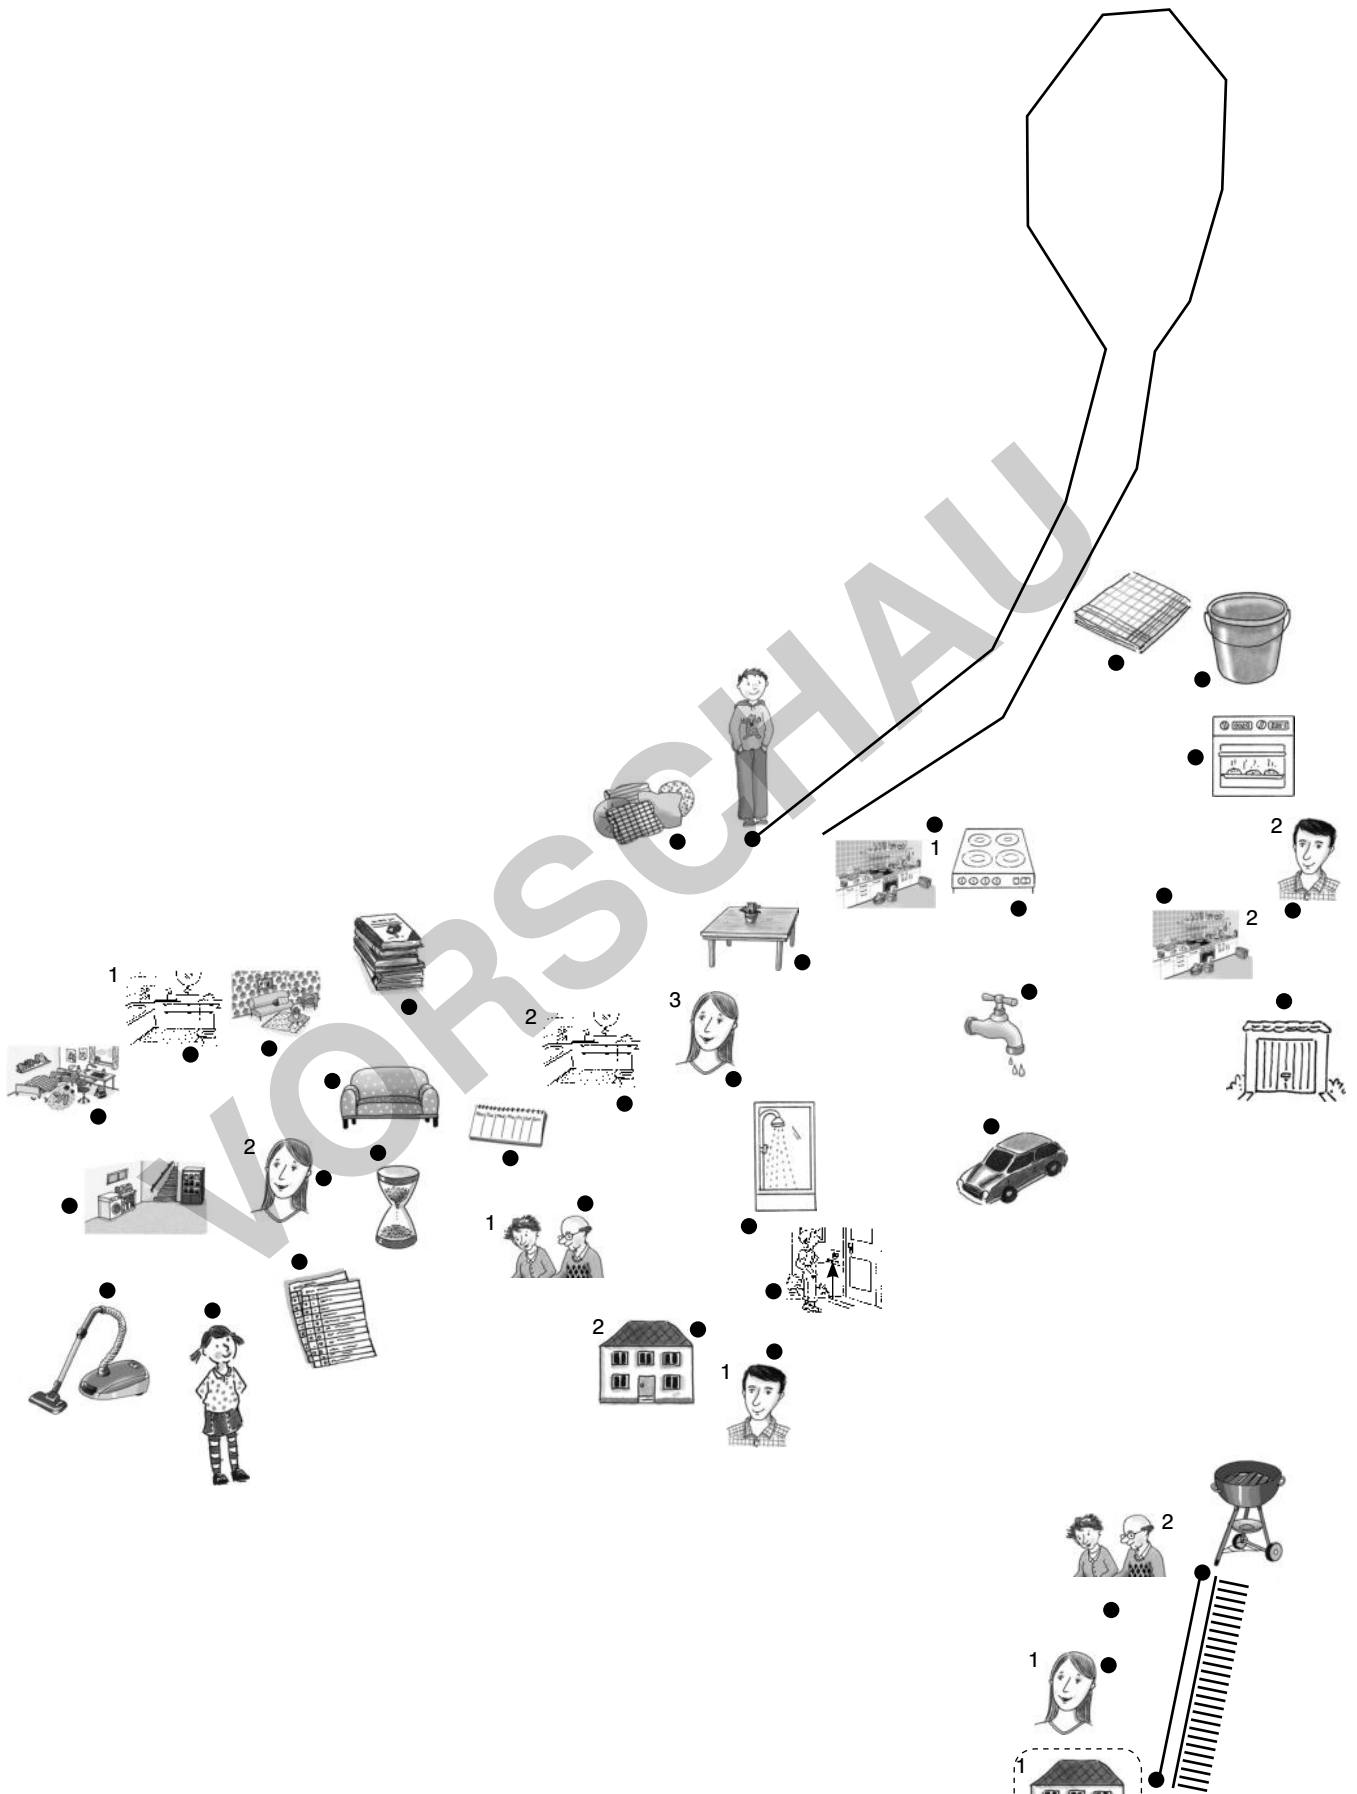

-  2. Connect the pictures with the matching words.

	stairs
	garden
	bedroom
	bathroom
	basement

-  3. Where do the objects below belong? Write full sentences.

Objects: bed, oven, bicycle, toilet

Example: The sofa belongs in the living room.

Christine von Pufendorf: Leseförderung mit Lesespurfiguren Englisch 5/6
Auer Verlag

netzwerk lernen

zur Vollversion

1. Read the text carefully. Underline all nouns.
Connect the pictures in the order of the nouns in the text.

It's the weekend. The sun is shining, and the Millers want to have a barbecue party. Dad is already heating the barbecue so that the charcoal burns hot soon. Then they get some courgettes, tomatoes, pickles and cheese. They cut them into slices on a cutting board. Some lettuce is already on a plate. They also put 5 some small potatoes with oil, salt and rosemary in the oven.
Tim has to set the table. He gets ten plates, forks and knives. He also puts napkins on the table.
Finally, their friends arrive. The kids are playing badminton while the meat is on the grill. Everybody puts whatever they want on their hamburgers.
10 After dinner, the kids want to watch a film. They eat popcorn. Their parents sit on the terrace and have a beer. It's a nice warm summer evening.

-  2. Answer the questions in full sentences.

a) Which season is it in the story?

b) What do the Millers want to do?

c) What is there to eat?

d) What do the children do after they finished their meal?

1. Read the text carefully. Underline all nouns.
Connect the pictures in the order of the nouns in the text.

It's the weekend! The sun is shining brightly, and the Millers want to have a barbecue party. Dad is already heating the barbecue so that the charcoal soon burns hot enough to grill.

Then they get some tasty courgettes, fresh tomatoes, juicy pickles and some cheese. They cut them all into big slices on a cutting board. Some lettuce, which they have bought 5 beforehand, is already on a plate. They also put some small potatoes with oil, salt and rosemary in the oven.

Tim has to set the table. First, he cleans it carefully. Then he gets ten plates, forks and knives. He also puts napkins on the table, which they have placed outside.

Finally, their friends arrive. The kids soon start playing badminton while the meat is on the grill 10 getting brown and crispy, but not too dry. Finally, they're done. Screaming and laughing, they all come together, and everybody puts whatever they want on their hamburgers. They taste wonderful! Some of them even have a second one.

After dinner, the kids want to watch a film. They eat popcorn. Their parents sit on the terrace and have a beer and talk. It's a nice summer evening, and they all wish it would never end.

2. Answer the questions in full sentences.

a) Which season is it in the story?

b) What do the Millers want to do?

c) What is there to eat?

d) What do the children do after they have finished their meal?

e) Do you like barbecues? Why? Why not?

